

Antonio Leroy Murray Sr.

August 23, 1970 - February 17, 2026

Antonio Leroy Murray was born on August 23, 1970, in Baltimore, Maryland, to Maria English (née Murray) and Leroy Charles. On February 17, 2026, he peacefully departed this life, leaving behind a legacy of strength, love, and unwavering devotion to his family.

Affectionately known as "Tone," Antonio was a man whose presence was unmistakable. He lived a life marked by strength, individuality, and deep love for those he held dear. Confident and stylish, he carried himself with quiet strength and authenticity. Anyone who met him immediately recognized that he possessed a presence that could not be ignored.

Antonio attended Baltimore City Public Schools and graduated from Lake Clifton High School, where he formed lifelong friendships that he cherished throughout the years. After graduation, he joined the Baltimore City Police Academy and went on to serve with the Baltimore City Police Department for 15 years. Throughout his career, he worked in various departments and was known for his strong work ethic, integrity, and steadfast commitment to providing for his family.

Beyond his professional accomplishments, Antonio's greatest pride and deepest joy were found in his family. He was once united in marriage to Younetta Black, and from that union, twins were born. Above all, he treasured his role as a father and grandfather. He was a devoted father to his six children and a proud grandfather to his two granddaughters. His love for them was evident in both word and action, and he took great pride in their lives and accomplishments.

Antonio accepted Christ as his Savior and became a member of First John Tabernacle Baptist Church, where he was baptized and enjoyed fellowship and spiritual growth alongside his church family.

He embraced life fully and enjoyed traveling and experiencing new places beyond the everyday routine. Whether working, watching sports, dancing, admiring cars, or enjoying a good crab cake especially one from G&M's-Tone found joy in life's simple and meaningful pleasures. Above all, he was immensely proud of his family.

Antonio leaves to cherish his memory: his father, Leroy Charles; his mother, Maria English; his children, Antonio Murray, Jr., Tonika S. Murray, Carron D. Murray, Dameon R. Williams, Ahmoni T. Murray, and A'Mon T. Murray; one brother, Leroy Charles, Jr.; one sister, Samar English; two granddaughters, A'Laya Williams and Katara Murray; six aunts, Doreatha Holmes of Texas, Marguerite Murray of South Carolina, Charlette Hardy (Robert), Hariette Murray, Patricia Brown (Stevie), Janet Hale (Chris, Sr.) of Maryland, and Deborah Charles of Florida; two uncles, Andre Murray and Alonzo Charles of Maryland; four nieces, Ashley Matrangolo, Leya Melvin Cleveland, Kaylee Charles, Chloe Charles; three nephews, Leroy Charles, III, Kyle Charles, and Cameron Charles; two godchildren, Alyshia Jones and Kamari Carr; one bonus son, Dwayne Cash; special friends, Raymond and Nicole Hunter, and Hassan and Tyrice Rasheed; along with a host of cousins, family and friends.

Though Antonio is no longer with us in body, his spirit lives on through the lives he touched, the love he gave, and the legacy he leaves behind. He will be deeply missed and forever remembered.
