“ We love Mr. Moore! He would always say something nice to us when we were walking out daughter or if we saw him in Giant he would always take time to talk and see our my family was doing! Mr. Moore was so dedicated to his family and his love for his wife, children, grandchildren, and great grandchildren. We loved seeing Brad waiting for his great grand-son to get on and off the bus and even if his great grand son wanted to ride his scooter home Mr. Moore would always follow right behind him. Mr. Moore's beautiful home and the new picnic pavilion he had his son constructed are such a tribute to his love for family and spending time together having fun. I remember how proud his great grand-son was November 2019 about the family vacation to Pearl Harbor and how much fun everyone shared. Mr. Moore will truly be missed - he is a true role-model for a loving, caring, compassionate man, father, husband, grandfather, and great grand-father. Our prayers are with his family and we are so terribly sorry for their pain.
