“ Dear John, Lisa, Chip, Greg and Billy. My heart is with you. Libby was an abundant source of love, encouragement and positivity. Somehow she always knew when to call me, (no matter where I was in the world) and share just the right perspective. Through our phone chats, she became the 'big sister' that I never had. Like you, I miss our conversations, and most definitely, her laughter. I pray that your many, many fond memories will bring you comfort, in time.

With love and sympathy,
Sheryl

“ Lisa, Chip, Greg and Billy and to my father (Aunt Libby's big brother). No words can truly express how deeply sorry we are, for the loss of your mother and sister, whom I proudly called, Aunt Libby.

The memories of our family gatherings, including our most famous card parties, are memories that will forever be with us. Even more personal, were the numerous long phone conversations, where all we talked about were our extended families and how we were all related. I feel truly blessed to have shared so many timeless moments with my Aunt.

There's no question or a doubt that Aunt Libby was remarkable in the way she upheld the oral tradition of story telling and remembrance of our family tree and their pasts like no other. We all have called on her quite often to remind us of when was someones birthday, phone number or where they currently reside. She kept alive such a memorable family tradition, which is why she will forever be with us, in thoughts and prayers.

A true original and one of a special kind.

May God bless her eternal soul.
