

Everett A. Smith, Sr.

July 4, 1951 - May 8, 2026

Everett Anthony Smith Sr., son of Rosa Patton and Everett Smith, was a husband, father, grandfather, and friend whose presence brought love and strength to those around him. He will be deeply missed by all who knew and loved him.

He leaves to cherish and celebrate his life his wife, Sheila Leary Smith; daughter, Jequire A. Smith; sons, Everett A. Smith Jr; daughter-law, Lolita Smith and Ramon Smith; grandsons, Ramon Smith and Everett A. Smith III; granddaughters Jada Smith and Gianna Smith; sisters, Cassandra Patton and Tanya Randall; brother-in-law, James Randall; lifetime friend/brother Robert A. Jones; godson, Darren Simms; and a host of special nieces, nephews, cousins, extended family, and dear friends who will forever hold his memory in their hearts.

Everett was preceded in death by his brothers, David Patton and Jernay Partton; and sisters, Theresa Lewis- Abdullah, Cemonla Christian, Monika Christian, and Fredericka Ely.

Everett loved listening to jazz and staying current on the latest events, He watched CNN and many other news outlets nonstop, so there was rarely a current event he did not know about. As we would often say, "Don't get stuck talking to him about the old days or current events, because you may never got away.'

Just like his mother Everett was a stickler for paying his bills on time. To him, paying a bill on the due date meant it was already late, He believed bills should be paid many days before there due.

One of his favorite pastimes was riding his lawnmower and cutting the grass at least twice a week. He also loved all of his grandchildren deeply. However, the two youngest, four year old Glanna and seven- year-old Everett III, affectionately known as Pee Wee, held a very special place in his heart.

Everett also loved tools and had just about how every up-to-date tool made. If a new version came out, he had to have it. He was quick to tell anyone, "Oh, I have that tool, You need it ? I got it."

Everett Anthony Smith Sr's love, wisdom, and spirit will continue to live on through the many lives he touchod. May he rest in power.

“ To Sheila and Family

I'm deeply sorry for your loss. Here's a gentle condolence poem you can share with the family:

*Your loved one's light will always stay,
In hearts and memories every day.
Though words may fail to ease the pain,
Love like theirs will still remain.*

*May peace surround you in this time,
And strength be found in every climb.
Though tears may fall and hearts may grieve,
Their spirit will never truly leave.*

*In every prayer, in every thought,
The love they gave will not be lost.
May cherished moments bring you grace,
And healing slowly find its place.*

With deepest sympathy and love.

“ To the Smith Family,
I pray God will continue to bless, comfort, strengthen, and give the peace that surpasses all understanding. It is said to be absent from the body is to be present with the Lord. I pray that you all are "Trusting in the Lord with all your hearts and leaning not on your own understanding. Acknowledging God for He will direct your paths (Prov.3:5-6)." May his soul be at rest forevermore.
God Bless,

“ I’m sorry to get the information that Folk had passed away. Tony was a very good friend. He had such a positive effect on me when I was a young man growing into a man. Those influences are still being applied in my life today. Tony was a big brother to me, who was also a mentor and an advisor.

Rest in peace brother. Your work here is done. But you will never be forgotten.
