

Monyette Marie Stephenson

June 10, 1980 - June 16, 2025

MONYETTE MARIE STEPHENSON (BATTLE) passed away on June 16, 2025, just six days after celebrating her 45th birthday.

Born in Baltimore, Maryland on June 10, 1980 to Wanda Parker and Marcus Battle, Monyette was a bright and loving soul whose presence left a lasting imprint on all who knew her.

Raised by her beloved paternal grandmother, the late Annie Mae Edmonds, Monyette spent her childhood surrounded by family, laughter, and strong values that would shape the woman she became. She attended Edgecombe Circle Elementary, Old Court Middle School, Towson High School, and graduated from Mt. Hebron High School.

Monyette began her professional journey at Roy Rogers, later working in a call center before finding her calling at United Healthcare Group, where she remained dedicated until her passing.

In 2003, Monyette married and continued building a life rooted in love and family. She found her greatest joy in being a mother to her two daughters, Nikell Copeland (Anfernee Copeland) and Camira Stephenson (George Thompson), and a proud “Mimi” to her cherished grandsons, Ashton Briscoe and Midnight Copeland. She also embraced her role as a stepmother to Darius Stephenson, Teniya Stephenson, and Tyanna Stephenson, and a grandmother to Laila Stephenson and Brayden Stephenson.

Monyette's love for her family was unwavering. She was selfless, strong, optimistic, and deeply kindhearted. Her positivity lit up every room she entered, and her resilience inspired those around her. She treasured the simple joys-time with her daughters, laughter with her grandchildren, and sharing life's moments with her best friend Shayla Nealy and godsons James and Jace Nealy.

She leaves behind her loving parents, Marcus Battle and Wanda Parker, her children, grandchildren, stepchildren, best friend, and godsons. She is preceded in death by her dear grandmother, Annie Mae Edmonds.

Monyette's legacy of love, strength, and compassion will continue to live on in the hearts of all who were blessed to know her.

“ Monyette had a beautiful spirit and I enjoyed talking with her each time I was in in presence.

Nikell and Camira - I pray that God holds you both tenderly in His arms—bringing comfort in the silence, strength through the sorrow, and light to guide you through this darkness.

May He surround you with healing love, compassionate people, and the courage to grieve fully, to feel deeply, and to slowly begin again.

May your mother’s love continue to live within you and shine through you always.

My deepest sympathy

“ Dearest loved ones of Monyette. I worked with her in her most recent role at United Healthcare. I bonded with her as we worked closely together (I was her trainer). Monyette was such a beautiful person, professional and kind. I loved her laugh. I always looked forward to chatting with her. She is already greatly missed and my brief time with her will always be cherished. May God grant you all peace beyond understanding and may He carry you through this difficult time. With love, Marcie Preciado
