“ Today we just said Good Bye to our Beloved Bhuaji. Throughout the somber Service I kept thinking about our life and times spent with her. She was and will always remain a major member of our family, such is the impact of her presence and relationship with us. I remember her wedding and hustle bustle in the household then children being born and how much we enjoyed having her in Meerut during school holidays Diwali and Rakhi gathering etc, the house used to buzz with laughter, She was a loving, giving, sharing, advising and supporting member who remained active in every way. its not just one particular anecdote to remember, she was like an eldest sister as my father used to say ' 'you are like our daughter', As we grew up together, the attachment and fondness grew amongst us. And now the time has come with warmth and heavy hearts to say, Thank You Bhuaji for those fond memories and kindness and much needed support from time to time. I feel proud and humbled to say ,well done to our youngest cousins, who gave her excellent care and love in return, and not forgetting her extended family for lasting support throughout her life. in India and then her time in USA. God bless her soul.
Good Bye Bhuaji

“"Oudak samund salal kee saakhiaa nadee tarang "samaaveh-gae"
("Like droplets of water are in an ocean wave and the ripples of a stream, I am immersed in the Lord."

Beji you will be missed – you gave all of us a lot of love, care and compassion. Thank you for everything you did and everything that you were in our world.

With you an era has moved along – and era full of stories and memories of the glorious past that none of us experienced, but only heard through you. Memories are all that left behind, and we will strive to hold on to and cherish them forever. Your legacy continues to live through your loved ones.

Today will be a very hard day for all of us – as we say our goodbyes. May Waheguru give us solace, and strength to bear your loss – and peace of mind to celebrate your life.

With a heavy heart
