

Pauline Hart

October 8, 1931 - June 11, 2024

Pauline Hart was born in Kinston, North Carolina on October 8, 1931. She always had a close and loving relationship with her mother, Willie King Crand. Pauline departed her earthly life on June 11, 2024 after an illness.

After graduating from high school in North Carolina, Mother Hart moved to Connecticut and then to Baltimore with her family. She was employed for many years as an assembly worker at Rubber Kraft Company. She also assisted her family with their business. Lee's Cleaners in West Baltimore.

Mother Hart accepted Jesus Christ as her personal Savior in North Carolina at an early age.

She joined and served diligently at the Liberty Memorial Baptist Church in West Baltimore under the pastorate of the late Rev. Lindsay Freeman. Later, she joined New Creation Christian Church under the pastorate of Apostle Bryan Claxton.

Mother Hart loved her family and the Murray Family who accepted her into their home and cared for her nearly twenty years. She was preceded in death by her parents and her two sons, Jimmy and Thomas Earl.

Mother Hart leaves to cherish her memory: her adopted daughter and caregiver, Valerie Murray; grandchildren, Thomas, Tyrone, and Jasmine; great grandchildren, cousins, relatives, friends, and a loving church family.
