

Randolph Bailey Jr.

February 1, 1950 - August 19, 2019

Randolph James Bailey, Jr. was born on February 1, 1950 in Baltimore Maryland to the late Randolph James Bailey Sr. and Vivian Bailey, the 2nd child of eight children. He was the devoted husband of Deborah Bailey for thirty-four years. Randolph was educated in the Baltimore school system. He graduated from Baltimore City College and attended classes at Baltimore Community College. He served in the US Army from 1968 to 1971. He worked as a dental technician for Dentax Lab and later operated his own lab, The Bailey Dental Lab. He was joined in marriage to the love of his life, Deborah Freeman in 1985. From this union they had a son Daniel Bailey. He also had a son from a previous relationship Keenan Bailey. Randolph enjoyed marital arts and earned a black belt in Aikido. He was baptized at John Wesley United Methodist Church Baltimore. He later joined the Community Baptist Church of Walbrook where he served until the time of his death. He was affectionately called Butch by his siblings and Boots by other family and friends. He loved to travel, the beach, marital arts and exercising. He will be missed by all who loved him. He leaves to cherish his memory his loving wife Deborah Bailey, two children Daniel William Bailey and Keenan Bailey, two grandchildren, four sisters (one proceeded him in death), one brother(one proceeded him in death), seven sister in laws, five brother in laws, and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.
