

Willie "Big Bob" Blackmon

March 27, 1942 - October 14, 2021

Willie Blackmon known as "Bobby" and "Big Bob" was born in Lancaster, SC March 27, 1942, to the late Eva Blackmon received his education in South Carolina Public Schools and was a proud 1962 graduate of Pine Forest High School. Sometime after graduation Bobby relocated to Baltimore, Maryland.

Bobby believed in working and understood without employment he would never acquire a sense of independence and independent he was. Not only did Bobby work numerous jobs he assisted his brother Crawford (BoBo) with his various businesses. Additionally, Bobby and his brother Billy owned a store and a restaurant. Bobby worked at Carr Lowery Glass company for many years and retired from Locke Insulators after 20 years. Bobby also known as "Bobby Bob" was a Bartender, Bartending was a position he loved! He enjoyed bartending at Colleen's bar and met many people there and touched their lives in various ways. After 24 years of faithful service, he retired in 2006. He must have forgotten he retired because you could still find him bartending and locking up. Colleen's Bar was also his stomping ground, he was either inside or out on the lot.

"Big Bob" had a big heart and was never judgmental. He saw the good in everybody. Many looked to him as a father figure or just respected his wisdom and good advice. He had an infectious smile and laugh that made all who heard it and laugh with him; when he walked into a room his positive vibes were felt by all.

In 1994 Bobby met a Lady named Carolyn, whom he made his wife on March 29, 1997. They enjoyed 26 of bliss. They remained as one until his sudden passing on October 14, 2021. There were no children born to this union.

Bobby accepted Jesus Christ as Lord and Savior in October 1996. Most of his church visits would be to pay respect to his loved ones and friends who passed.

Bobby was preceded in death by his two brothers Billy and Crawford (BoBo) Blackmon, his sister Annie Grace Miller, and his grandson Andrew Bratcher.

“ How do you measure the worth of a man?
You measure it by the Great Legacy of "Love" he leaves behind Big Bob, my favorite brother in law you simply was a joy to be around 27yrs, thanks for your kindness, your 😄 laughter, and your
"Love"
You will always be just a smile away.
As Lou Rawls could say, " I'll see you when I get there.
"Sleep N Peace," your sister in law LULU💙

It's been a year since you "walked" out of the house and never came back. Not because you left me but because God decided it was time for you to rest. What I hold on to is God allowed you to "walk" out of the house and looking good...He allowed you to do it your way... He honored your request. God is awesome!!! A few days from now it will be a year that we celebrated your Homegoing and yes Warren for real for real God has the last say!!!!

Will always love you - Your Wife
